

UNITED WAY OF THE CHATTAHOOCHEE VALLEY

- Mission: To create positive change in the Chattahoochee Valley by collaborating with partners and bringing resources together to improve people's lives.
- Vision: To be a dynamic community that works together to solve core issues ensuring a good quality of life for all our citizens.
- Involves: More than 20,000 givers, hundreds of volunteers who donate countless hours serving on committees, assisting with community projects, helping to raise more than $6.9 million in 2008 and leading the allocation process.
- Service Area: United Way of the Chattahoochee Valley improves lives in your community by helping thousands of people throughout our region in Muscogee, Harris, Chattahoochee, Stewart, Talbot, Marion and Taylor counties in GA and Russell in AL.
- Governance: United Way is governed locally by an independent Board of Directors Chaired by Rob Doll, Rob Doll Nissan and Chair-Elect, Abbott Turner, Char-Broil Steakhouse.
- Partner Agencies: Together, we get the results that no one can accomplish alone. For the current funding year, United Way has 25 partner agencies and 47 programs.
- Efficiency: Nearly 88% of every dollar raised goes directly to provide needed services in the Chattahoochee Valley. (The Better Business Bureau Standards of Accountability recommends a minimum of 65%)

United Way is advancing the common good by creating lasting changes in peoples' lives and the community.
